The Great Divide. "The Great Divide," which comes to the Broadway theater on Friday, March 5, marks a new and better epoch in the American drama. It is a play on a vital and permanent them or life, deeply imagined, and wrough out with a skill which, while modes and simple is as strongly dramatic as it is literary. The author, William Vaughn Moody is professor of English at the university of Chicago, it is his maiden effort at play-writing, and a consensus of the leading critics declare this drama, of absorbing interest, to be the long and anxiousiy awaited great American play.
